

SURFconext-specific

The following articles contain background information specific to SURFconext. Here, you will learn more about the difference between multi tenant and single tenant services but also important updates to our platform like a key-rollover and what you need to do to keep your service working with SURFconext. Use the navigation on the right to brows through the articles.

Please note that some pages are only available in Dutch.

Navigate