Security

The pages here are intended for both identity providers as well as service providers. The articles published here will give you background information about security when using SURFconext. Consult these pages to make your TLS configuration robust and get to know SURFconext's contact points regarding security incidents.

Please note that some pages are only available in Dutch.

Navigate